2006 Championship

Highlights

Nothing Is Perfect, Except Perhaps Virginia Lacrosse Season: Virginia men's lacrosse coach Dom Starsia is loathe to label anything "perfect," but his team had him re-thinking his uneasiness with the word after winning the Division I Men's Lacrosse Championship May 29 in Philadelphia.

Virginia's 15-7 victory over Massachusetts capped off an undefeated season with the Cavaliers' fourth title.

"I'd hesitate to call anything perfect, but this is pretty darn close to a perfect season," Starsia said. "It's a group of thoughtful, hard-working young men that created the impression that we can all walk away with from the 2006 lacrosse season."

Senior attacker Matt Ward, who scored five times in the championship game, said perfection was not expected at the beginning of the season, though the bar was raised as the wins accumulated.

"Going 17-0 is not something anyone expected to do. But once we got rolling this season, we really wanted to do that," Ward said. "It was important for us to make Virginia lacrosse and the Charlottesville area proud."

The Minutemen, unseeded in the tournament, made their first appearance in the championship game and kept pace with Virginia throughout the first half. The score was 5-4 at halftime, and Massachusetts was playing strong defense, including a dazzling performance from goaltender Doc Schneider, who had nine saves by the break.

Starsia said that while his team didn't perform flawlessly in the first half, he knew that being a little more attentive on defense and more discriminating in shot selection would pay off in the second half.

"We've sort of stumbled in the second quarter lately, so there was no need for a big halftime speech," he said. "I thought that we got a little careless on defense and bit stubborn shooting the ball."

With the score tied, 5-5, in the third quarter, the Cavaliers took over. Virginia scored six consecutive goals to seal the victory, including three from Matt Poskay and two from Ward.

Virginia denied Massachusetts' leading scorer, Sean Morris, from finding the net throughout the championship game. Morris was matched with the Cavaliers' Michael Culver.

"When I was able to go at him, I was able to get some shots," Morris said. "But I wasn't able to get the ball much and he did a great job with their entire defense."

Massachusetts coach Greg Canella said he had wanted to limit the face-offs to deny Virginia's strength, but the Minutemen couldn't get that job done.

"They are so strong that you kind of needed to hold the face-offs down. We weren't able to do that, particularly early on in the game," Cannella said. "They were a great team and a very consistent team all season — as they were today."

The Cavaliers' Poskay and Ward each tallied five goals. Seven Minutemen each scored a single goal in the game.

Ward was named the tournament's most outstanding player. He broke the tournament record for most goals, scoring 16. The previous record was 15 from Syracuse's Gary Gait in the 1990 tournament.

Ward's teammates Culver, Poskay, Kyle Dixon and Danny Glading joined him on the all-tournament team. Morris, Jake Deane, Jack Reid and Schneider represented Massachusetts, while Syracuse's Brett Bucktooth also was honored.

DIVISION II

Highlights

Le Moyne Defense Trumps Dowling Offense In Lacrosse: Le Moyne bested Dowling, 12-5, to take its second Division II Men's Lacrosse Championship in three years May 28 in Philadelphia. The Dolphins also won the title in 2004.

The championship game matched Le Moyne's top-ranked defense against Division II's most prolific offense. Dowling averaged 15.6 goals per game coming into the championship, but the Golden Lions were held to their lowest goal total all season in the championship game.

Though Le Moyne didn't waver in its season-long mission to protect the goal, the Dolphins also chose the championship game to release a flurry of offense, led by Mike McDonald, who scored four times.

Head coach Dan Sheehan noted the team's ability to perform well in any situation.

"This is the most determined group of 18- to 22-year-olds I've ever been around," he said. "We were fortunate this year to have a group that does it on both ends of the field. We were able to send our senior class off the field with two national championships and only two losses in their career."

Le Moyne's victory was not assured early on — Dowling jumped out to an early 2-1 lead before five minutes had elapsed. Golden Lions' goaltender Nick Tracey played tough, saving 11 shots from reaching the net.

Once the Dolphins calmed their nerves before the crowd of 23,990 at Lincoln Financial Field, they jumped back into the game, tying the score at two and then taking the lead for good on a goal from McDonald late in the first quarter. McDonald, named the tournament's most outstanding player, scored again to lead off the second quarter, and Le Moyne never looked back. The Dolphins allowed Dowling just one more goal in the first half and posted a 5-3 lead at the break.

The Dolphins extended their cushion to 9-5 late in the third quarter, boosted by a pair of goals from sophomore Brian Cost. Le Moyne held the Golden Lions to only two second-half goals and none in the last 30 minutes.

LeMoyne finished the year 18-0, which adds to a 62-2 record over the last four seasons. The Dolphins' 2004 championship team also was unbeaten. Dowling's final record is 12-2, with its only regular-season loss coming against conference foe C.W. Post. The Lions were making their first appearance in the championship game.

Highlights

Cortland State Ends Salisbury Reign With Overtime Conquest: Cortland State stunned three-time defending champion Salisbury in overtime May 28 to win the Division III Men's Lacrosse Championship, handing the Sea Gulls their first loss since April 10, 2003. The 13-12 defeat ended Salisbury's 69-game winning streak and brought the title back to Cortland State for the first time in 31 years. The Red Dragons' Mike Felice scored a goal with 2.2 seconds remaining in overtime to lift his team over the defending champions and heavy favorites.

The teams were evenly matched from the outset, with each answering the other's score. The teams combined for 11 ties and four lead changes in the see-saw game, and the largest margin was two goals, which Salisbury held in the second quarter. The Sea Gulls were up, 7-6, at the half.

The Red Dragons came out strong in the third quarter, though, opening with a quick goal, dominating the face-offs and controlling the time of possession. Ryan Heath scored three times in the third quarter for Cortland State, including a tying goal with 37 seconds left. Salisbury midfielder Luis Gonzalez led his team with three goals in the third quarter after scoring just four the entire season.

The fourth quarter was a stark contrast to the offensive barrage in the third — both teams turned to their defense to carry the day. Salisbury led the game with less than a minute to play, but Cortland State's Ryan Simensky scored off a loose ball, tying the game at 12.

Red Dragons sophomore Josh Cittadino won his 13th face-off to start the overtime, but a subsequent shot sailed wide. Salisbury also had chances, but Cortland State goalie Ben Gaebel made two of his 18 saves in the extra period. The Red Dragons capitalized on their final possession, with Felice scoring the game winner after beating his defender and getting in close range.

Felice finished with three goals and the most-outstanding-player award. Heath led Cortland State with four goals. Salisbury finished the season 20-1, while Cortland State completed an 18-3 campaign.

Individual Records

Official NCAA women's lacrosse records began with the 1982 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

A player whose career includes statistics from five seasons (or an active player who will play in five seasons) because she was granted an additional season of competition for reasons of hardship or a freshman redshirt is denoted by '$'.

Team Records

Official NCAA women's lacrosse records began with the 1982 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Individual Records

Official NCAA Division II women's lacrosse records began with the 1998 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate. A player whose career includes statistics from five seasons (or an active player who will play in five seasons) because she was granted an additional season of competition for reasons of hardship or a freshman redshirt is denoted by '$'.

Team Records

Official NCAA Division II women's lacrosse records began with the 1998 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

Individual Records

Official NCAA women's lacrosse records began with the 1982 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

A player whose career includes statistics from five seasons (or an active player who will play in five seasons) because she was granted an additional season of competition for reasons of hardship or a freshman redshirt is denoted by '$'.

Team Records

Official NCAA women's lacrosse records began with the 1982 season and are based on information submitted to the NCAA statistics service by institutions participating in the statistics rankings. In statistical rankings, the rounding of percentages and/or averages may indicate ties where none exist. In these cases, the numerical order of the rankings is accurate.

With Northwestern's leading scorer hobbled by an injury, Wildcats' senior Sarah Albrecht stepped up her game, scoring here against Dartmouth goalie Devon Wills. Albrecht scored two goals and assisted on another as Northwestern defeated the Big Green, 7-4.

Highlights

A New Powerhouse Has Emerged In Women's Lacrosse: Northwestern capped a perfect season May 22 with a 13-A new powerhouse has emerged in women's lacrosse — the Northwestern Wildcats. In a sport whose popularity is rooted in the Northeast, the Midwestern school won its second consecutive Division I Women's Lacrosse Championship May 28 at Boston U.

The Wildcats posted a 7-4 victory over Dartmouth in the title game despite an ankle injury that slowed star player Kristen Kjellman. The Wildcats' leading scorer left the game with just over a minute left in the first half. She returned in the second half but was held without a point for the only time all year.

Northwestern head coach Kelly Amonte-Hiller said Kjellman's injury was another in a string of realizations for her team that winning back-to-back titles would be a challenge.

"I think this one was harder, which is unreal because last year we were the underdogs all season. This year we had a little bit of a target on our back," she said.

This time it was Dartmouth taking aim, but Northwestern junior Aly Josephs and senior Sarah Albrecht made sure the Big Green missed its chance, even though Dartmouth led, 4-3, with about 25 minutes to play. The Northwestern duo scored the game's remaining goals. Josephs scored four overall, while Albrecht tallied twice, added an assist and was named the tournament's most outstanding player.

Northwestern's two-goal first half against the nation's leader in scoring defense was a season low. Five of the Wildcats' shots hit the post. Amonte Hiller called the first-half performance "frustrating."

"It was difficult. We just weren't ourselves. We went into half time saying, 'We need to settle down,'" she said. "But we were getting opportunities and that was a good sign. If we weren't getting any opportunities, that would be a bad sign."

It was the Wildcats who got defensive in the second half, holding Dartmouth scoreless for the final 24:49.

Dartmouth head coach Amy Patton noted the stark difference in Northwestern's play in the first and second halves, and called her team "tough and gritty" even though they didn't have their best performance.

"We give credit to Northwestern. They executed much better than they did in the first half," she said. "But I am so proud of this (Dartmouth) team. In all the years that I have coached, this team has had to battle harder than any team I have seen at Dartmouth. I knew that as we walked off that field that those kids gave it their best effort. It wasn't good enough, but they fought to the bitter end!"

Dartmouth finished the season 14-6, while Northwestern posted a 20-1 record.

2006 Championship

Highlights

Adelphi Mixes Typical Defense With Atypical Offense In Win : The Adelphi women's lacrosse team continued with the strong defensive play that was its hallmark throughout the 2006 campaign, but the Panthers added a flurry of offense to win the Division II Women's Lacrosse Championship May 14 in Lisle, Illinois.

The Panthers defeated West Chester, 16-8, in a rematch of the 2004 NCAA championship, a game Adelphi also won. It was the third consecutive runner-up finish for West Chester. The Golden Rams last won the title in 2002.

Adelphi built its 16-1 record with strong defensive play but became a scoring powerhouse in the championship game. The Panthers compiled several scoring runs, including a 6-0 spurt to end the first half and begin the second.

Junior attacker Lauren Lopez said her team stepped up on both sides of the field.

"All season we mostly relied on our defense. Today, we just wanted the ball to be on the offensive side most of the time," Lopez said. "We were very choosy with our shots, and that's what got us five goals right away. I think we actually worked the ball around better today than we ever had."

Lopez led the Panthers in scoring with five goals. Her twin sister Diana added a hat trick. Teammate Dawn Anselmin scored four times. Diana Lopez said the team was motivated to win against a highly skilled opponent.

"We talked last night and this morning about how capable West Chester is of winning a national championship. We said that everything has to work from end to end," she said. "We knew we could be successful, it was just a matter of doing it, and we did just that."

In its decisive victory, Adelphi managed to contain the all-time Division II career points leader, West Chester's Katelyn Martin. Martin scored three goals in the championship to end her career with 365 points.

Adelphi coach Jill Lessne-Solomon said she matched one of her top defenders against Martin and told her "do or die."

"I asked one of my seniors to lay it all on the line for a national championship," she said. "I noticed yesterday scouting West Chester that everything kind of flowed through Katelyn, and I knew we needed to stop that flow. I think we did a good job."

West Chester ended the season 18-3.

Lauren Dougher of The College of New Jersey became the most prolific scorer in Division III women's lacrosse postseason history with a four-goal performance in the championship game.

2006 Championship

Highlights

Lions Ride Prolific Scorer To Women's Lacrosse Championship: Senior midfielder Lauren Dougher of The College of New Jersey finished her lacrosse career on a high note in the Division III championship, leading the Lions to the 2006 title over Gettysburg and breaking the record for career goals scored in the postseason.

Bolstered by four goals from Dougher and a hat trick from teammate Rachel Gordon, the Lions repeated as champion by beating the previously undefeated Bullets, 10-4, at Stevens Institute May 21.

The 2005 victory was over a heavily favored team as well — Salisbury came into the game ranked No. 1, just as Gettysburg did this year.

Dougher was named the tournament's most outstanding player, an honor she also earned in 2005. She ends her career with 50 goals in the Division III tournament, surpassing the 46 scored by fellow Lion Jen Hart. Dougher also ends with 66 points, equaling the mark set by former Middlebury player Kristen Hanley.

"The accomplishments haven't hit me yet," Dougher said. "I am happy we won and that we are going out like this. There is no better way to end the season and my career."

The Lions last won consecutive titles in the mid-1990s, when they were crowned champions six years in a row. Head coach Sharon Pfluger said every championship is special, and the 2006 title is no different.

"Every time feels like the first time. Every team works hard, but every team is different," she said. "You have to look at what goes into the journey. It is wonderful to finish it off with a national championship, but the journey itself was just incredible, and I will never forget it."

The Lions finished the season 15-2, with their only losses coming earlier in the season to Gettysburg and Cortland State, both by one goal. In the end, though, The College of New Jersey stopped Gettysburg just short of perfection, as the Bullets finished at 21-1.

Dougher led the team's assertive offense, but the Lions' defense was smothering, holding the Bullets to their lowest goal total since 1998. Two of Gettysburg's first five shots bounced off the post, but the Bullets finally connected with 8:24 to play in the first half. The College of New Jersey dominated the game from start to finish, allowing only one goal in the first period, then holding the Bullets without a score until 12:25 left in the game.
